Khun Mae-Samas is a registered nurse, who began her career in 1984. She worked at Chiva-Som, an International Health Resort located in Hua Hin, the Royal seaside resort in southern Thailand, from 2001-2008, in the Medical and Holistic Health Department. Mae possesses a healer's spirit, and she believes that energy and bodywork are essential in treating illnesses. She is a certified Universal Tao Instructor and Chi Nei Tsang Teacher, and her approach to treatment involves combining Reflexology & Reiki in her relaxation therapy, as well as Chi Nei Tsang treatment, which is capable of both healing and diagnosis. Mae has presented her knowledge and participated in many holistic health events, including the World Congress of Holistic Medicine in 2004, where she shared her expertise as a speaker at the International Spa & Wellness conference and Exhibition 2006, both in and out of Thailand.
