THE STORY OF THE SEASON

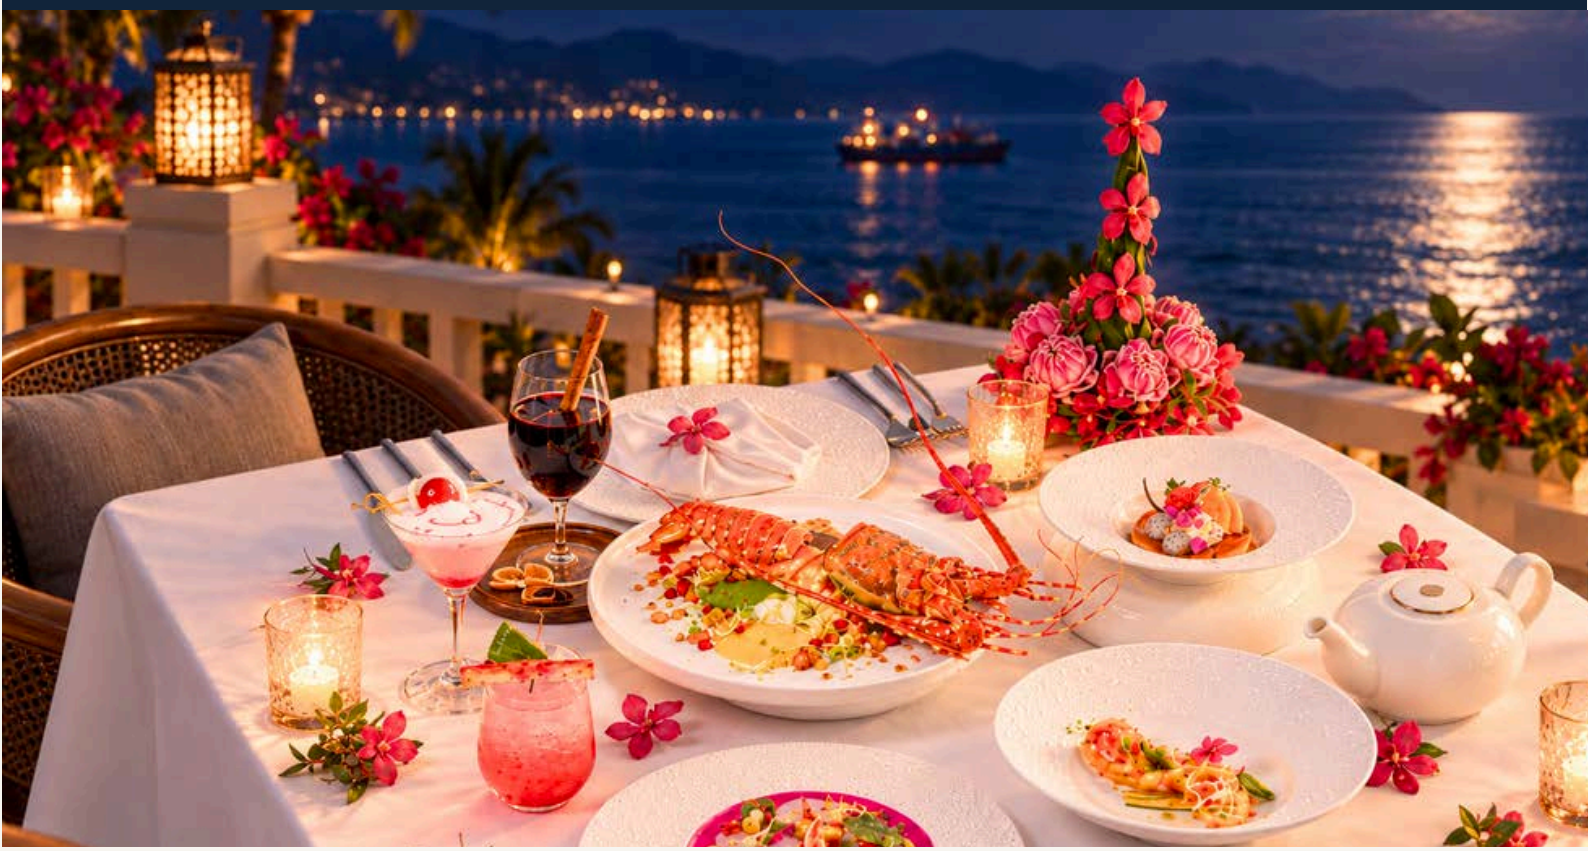

Where the sea meets the moonlight

At Amatara, the festive season unfolds beneath the gentle glow of the moon, where the Andaman Sea becomes a setting for meaningful reunions, refined dining, and moments worth remembering.

From the warmth of a moonlit Christmas to the magic of a starlit New Year's Eve, each celebration brings its own story of togetherness, timeless traditions, and new beginnings.

A little more magic,
beneath an open sky.

One last night. A thousand new possibilities.

Chandra, meaning moon, lends its name to an evening inspired by the wonder of the night sky.
As the moonlight touches the Andaman Sea, guests gather for a celebration that connects Thai cultural artistry, vibrant performances, and the joy of welcoming what comes next.

The countdown is more than a moment at midnight.
It is a shared passage from one year into another.

THE ART OF THE EVENING

Khon
A living legacy

Among the evening's cultural highlights, Khon offers a glimpse into one of Thailand's most distinguished performing arts.

Rooted in the Ramakien epic, Khon brings together expressive movement, elaborate costumes, traditional music, and centuries of craftsmanship.

Its visual language transforms stories of courage, loyalty, and the enduring triumph of good into a performance of extraordinary grace

FEATURED AT THE CHANDRA STARLIGHT GALA

Alongside Muay Thai, live music, a fire show, and contemporary cultural performances.
